

Elliott

The Elliott is the gold standard of a traditional panel rolled arm design, dressed with hand turned legs with antique brass casters to accentuate this elegant timeless style. If nailheads are not your cup of tea then substitute with welting or go without the detail all together. Remember, all of our pieces are made to order so any modification you would like can be accomplished.

Fabric Notes

The juxtaposition of a modern wide wale corduroy cotton velvet in JAB's rich deep teal gives an unexpected touch to a classic style.
