

Ambleside

The Ambleside design gets its name from a lovely village in the heart of Cumbria where lush green forests surround peaceful lakes. This balanced design stands the test of time with a mahogany frame and a tight back that always keeps its tailored lines. It is the perfect style for making a statement with large repeat prints as the wood trim acts like a picture frame. This style can be customized with any specified species of wood

78" length | 34" depth

19" seat height | 23" seat depth

24" arm height | 4" arm width

37" Back height | 6" leg

Fabric Notes

Shown here in Dedar Milano's Tiger Mountain jacquard velvet that offers an enigmatic scene of figurative depiction of magical tigers, the curious guardians of many mysteries.